

Weekly Connections #3

MLCA@HOME

Rachel as Leonardo DaVinci's
Mona Lisa

Photo Challenge

FANTASTIC JOB MLCA FAMILIES!

We are asked you to participate in this the Getty Museum challenge where art fans recreate works of art from the safety of their homes.

Share more with us for the next issue. Hopefully, the 6th/7th Grade will be sharing their versions of Julius Cesear in the next edition...

June in Vermeer's A Young Woman Seated at a Virginal

Elijah, Nadiya and Noah in Girodet-Trioson's
The Funeral of Atala

Catherine in Johnson's In the Garden

Matteo, Elijah and Nadiya in Fuseli's The Nightmare

Below: June and Henry in Mucha's The Coronation of the Serbian Tzar

Catherine
in Vermeer's
Girl with a Pearl
Earring

Raphael poses in Munch's
The Scream

Students construct a sundial from science class and draw plant anatomy.

Holy Week is a time when Catholics consume beaucoup de poisson. This Easter, Fausto learned how to clean fish. It was a lesson in biology, culinary arts, family tradition, and religion... all at the kitchen sink! These are sardines, by the way, and Fausto cleaned half the catch for their Easter feast!

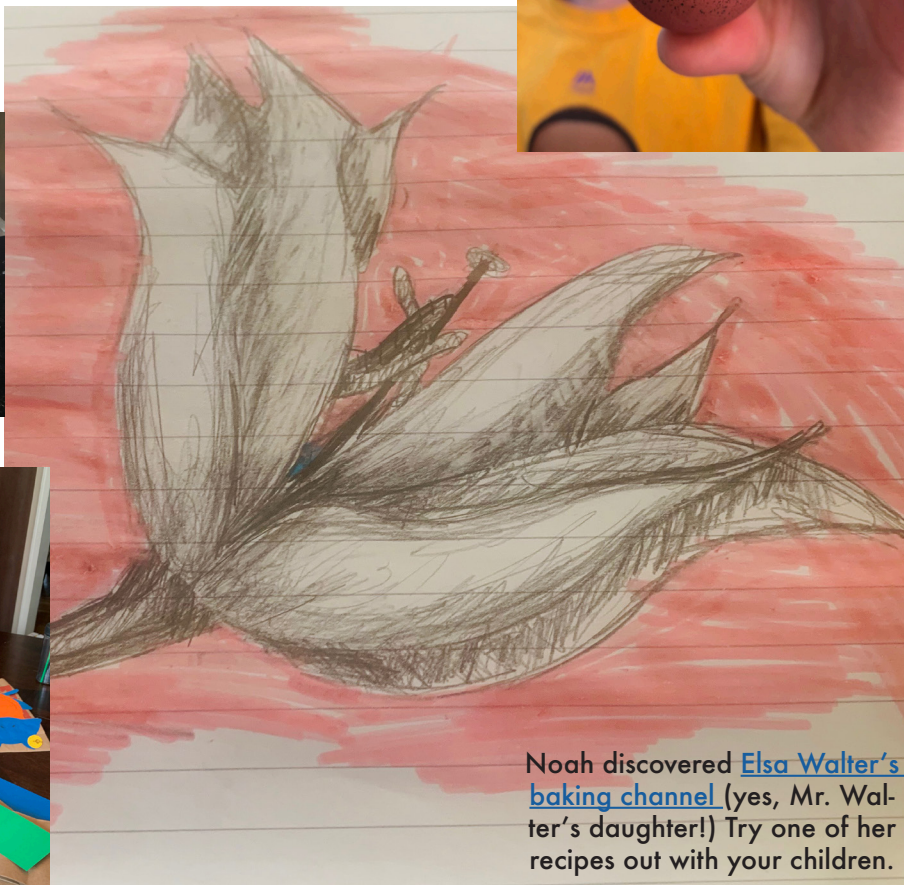

Matteo dyes eggs, Anne draws Easter Lillies

WHAT TO DO... WITH ALL THIS TIME ON OUR HANDS ?

Gorgeous loaves of challah from the Winfields.

Noah discovered Elsa Walter's baking channel (yes, Mr. Walter's daughter!) Try one of her recipes out with your children.

June copies a still life, and Asha get crafty with paper frogs. If all else fails: reorganise your silly bands!

WE CAN ONLY SHARE WHAT IS SHARED WITH US...

Send us material for next week! Science, art, litteratue, family fun, more photo challenge -WE MISS ALL OF OUR STUDENTS

Send your anecdotes by wednesdays to: admissions@mainlineclassical.org